Immediate Solution,
Long-Term Value

Solving the Aging Issue

At Cref, we specialize in delivering experienced and qualified interim healthcare facilities directors to meet our clients' immediate needs and drive long-term success. Our proven approach not only fills critical vacancies but also enhances program effectiveness and positions our clients for sustained operational excellence.

Your Challenge

Vacancies in key healthcare facilities management leadership roles can disrupt operations, compromise compliance, and threaten the preservation of institutional knowledge in your built environment. The demand for qualified healthcare facilities directors exceeds the current supply, leaving critical gaps in expertise.

Our Solution

Cref provides experienced interim healthcare facilities directors who seamlessly integrate with your team to ensure continuity, compliance, and operational efficiency. Supported by our team of regulatory and facilities experts, they deliver education, program development, and hands-on guidance throughout the transition. Our approach not only preserves essential institutional knowledge of your hospital's built environment but also ensures that your organization is set up for long-term success, with a smooth handoff to your permanent facilities leadership.

The Outcome

Our directors do more than maintain the status quo—they assess, educate, and elevate your facilities program, ensuring it aligns with your strategic goals while solving immediate challenges.

Our Comprehensive Approach

Quick Deployment of Expert Directors

Our expert directors swiftly integrate into your team, bringing expertise in compliance, asset management, and operational readiness, while ensuring continuity through the retention of key institutional knowledge.

Program Assessment & Enhancement

We conduct a thorough evaluation of your current practices to identify areas for improvement and implement industry best practices to enhance your facilities management program.

Strategic Partnerships

We use insights from our interim engagement to offer actionable recommendations and build a lasting partnership, with additional services like regulatory readiness, preventive maintenance, and capital project management.

How We Work

A Trusted Partner for Your Success

Partnering with Cref means more than filling a role—it means building a bridge to enhanced operations and strategic growth. Let us help you solve today's challenges while preserving institutional knowledge and setting the stage for tomorrow's success.
